

ABOUT THE CONCERT

Long-time Las Vegas musician and entertainer Kent Foote will be presenting "The Bridge", An Orchestral Benefit Concert on October 13, 2019 at the Orleans Casino Showroom at 6:00pm. This concert event will be accompanied by a full 32-piece orchestra, conducted and arranged by Mariano Longo, and will benefit two of Las Vegas' most respected and revered charities: The Trauma Intervention Program (TIP) of Southern Nevada Inc. and Nevada Health Centers.

"The Bridge", An Orchestral Benefit Concert, will collectively connect ethnicity, musical genres, charitable organizations, and multi-generations of audience interests to create an atmosphere of collaboration and connectivity. The Benefit Concert will feature acts including Ariana Martinez — The Music of Gloria Estefan, Frankie Scinta — The Showman, Kent Foote and The Vegas Good Fellas, and Serpentine Fire — The Music of Earth Wind and Fire.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATIONS

Trauma Intervention Program (TIP) of Southern Nevada, Inc. provides emotional and practical support on scenes of tragedy at the request of emergency responders. In 2018, TIP's volunteers responded to just under 1,600 scenes of tragedy in Clark County where they assisted over 8,000 individuals in crisis.

Nevada Health Centers provided healthcare services to nearly 50,000 Nevadans in 2018, in urban rural and frontier communities throughout Nevada. Their mission is to provide access to quality healthcare services throughout Nevada.
